Half Day Tour

We will head to the city centre for a two-hour stroll showing the beautiful Art Deco buildings, for example: Millers optometrist, old Post Office and the Old Mutual Building. We will also point out some of Sir Herbert Baker's buildings and his famous Cape Dutch revivalist style, for example: Fresh produce Building, now the Eastern Bazaar as well as Groote Kerk.

Several public artworks can also be seen on this tour, for example the Cape Town Memorial to the Enslaved created by Wilma Cruise and Gavin Young.

Lunch to be booked in the city centre.

Full Day extension

After lunch it is a lovely option to head out to the Silo District at the Waterfront visiting the Guild gallery as well as the Zeitz MOCAA.

OR

Visit The Norval Foundation in Tokai, referred to as the Homestead Art Collection and is one of the leading 20th-century South African art collections.

OR

Visiting Rust & Vreugd, a grand old Cape Dutch mansion and garden that has been one of the first spaces used for exhibiting art in Cape Town.
